Since forming in 1996 in Chicago, Disturbed have sold more than 11 million albums worldwide, with three consecutive studio albums debuting at No. 1 on the Billboard 200. Next week, the group brings three more tracks to Rock Band, including "Another Way to Die," "Asylum" and "The Animal." These songs are from the band's fifth studio album, Asylum, due out Aug. 31 on Reprise Records. As a special gift to fans, Disturbed will be including the documentary Decade of Disturbed with every copy of Asylum. The 75 minute-plus film candidly captures the band's 10-year history with extensive behind-the-scenes and never-before-seen footage. To support Asylum, the band will hit the road to headline the first annual Rockstar Energy Drink UPROAR Festival. The tour kicked off Aug. 17 and runs through Oct. 4. Tickets for UPROAR are on sale now. Please visit <http://www.rockstaruproar.com> for details. Three hot new bands make their Rock Band debuts next week in a three-pack of songs from Universal Motown Republic. We Are The Fallen is comprised of original members of multi-platinum trailblazing band Evanescence, guitarists Ben Moody and John LeCompt along with drummer Rocky Gray, with enigmatic American Idol finalist Carly Smithson powering the vocal reins of the new group. "Bury Me Alive," from We Are The Fallen's debut 2010 album, Tear the World Down, will be added to the Rock Band Music Store next week. Canada's The Veer Union made their mark in 2009 with "Seasons," the single from their debut album, Against the Grain. "Seasons" reached No. 10 in the Billboard Hot Mainstream Rock Tracks chart, became the theme song for 2009 Stanley Cup winners, the Pittsburgh Penguins, and was also featured in all Major League Baseball postseason telecast, as well as NFL, NASCAR, ESPN, WWE Backlash, NHL and more. Next week, fans will be able to play this song in Rock Band as well. Rock trio Crash Kings formed in 2006 in Los Angeles and released their self-titled debut album in 2009.
