

Bruiser and Scratch™ Available Now Exclusively for WiiWare™!

Austin, Texas- December 10, 2008 – Steel Penny Games, a videogame development company specializing in mass market and kid friendly games, announced today that its highly anticipated WiiWare™ puzzle game Bruiser and Scratch is now available for download on the Wii Shop Channel for Nintendo Wii™. The puzzle game can be obtained for 1000 Wii Points®.

Bruiser and Scratch is the first game released from Steel Penny Games and is rated E for everybody. Bruiser and Scratch are a pair of lovable friends that are somehow always getting into the thick of it. Bruiser and Scratch somehow find themselves sucked into a world where science and magic interweave freely. Their adventure leads them through this mystery place of dark undertones and adventure they meet friends who help them along their way. This adventure packed matching puzzle game will keep you mystified through each level as you travel through the magical world that Bruiser and Scratch have fallen into.

For more information about Steel Penny Games or Bruiser and Scratch, please visit www.steelpennygames.com.

#####

ABOUT STEEL PENNY GAMES:

Steel Penny Games founded in 2006 is a videogame development studio specializing in mass-market, kid friendly games with unique gameplay and an unwavering commitment to fun. Started by ex-Naughty Dog industry veterans, Steel Penny Games is gathering steam for its first release, with an eye toward larger markets and growth. Steel Penny Games focuses on building smaller games with big production values and broad gamer appeal. For more information, please visit: www.steelpennygames.com

MEDIA CONTACT:

Danitra Alomia

Reverb Communications

(209) 586-1495 ext. 115

danitra@reverbinc.com